

Marston, James Edward. The life and campaigns of Field-Marshal Prince Blücher of Wahlstatt. From the period of his birth an first appointment in the prussian service, down to his second entry into Paris, in 1815. Translated in Part from the German of General Count Gneisenau, Quarter-Master-General to Prince Blücher's Army. With considerable additions, by (Mit dem Portrait Blüchers.)
8. London 1815.